Located in Sedona, Arizona

Ranked the Most Beautiful Place in America by USA Today, Sedona, Arizona is a unique location in the heart of Arizona's celebrated Red Rock Country. Sedona embodies iconic visions of the Old West with its awe-inspiring sandstone geological formations which surround the town on all sides. Sedona draws 3 million visitors a year from all over the world to enjoy the abundance of recreational, art, cultural and new-age spiritual experiences. This striking setting includes many fine dining establishments presided over by renowned chefs and lodging facilities including rustic cabins along Oak Creek, peaceful bed and breakfast accommodations, time share condos and world class resorts and spas.

Visitors can experience site seeing with Sedona's famous Pink Jeep tours into the red rock backcountry, an abundance of souvenir shopping along the main street, and fine art galleries all over town. Hikers have access to scenic trails from just about every point in the city. Not to be missed is a day at Tlaquepaque, a shopping and arts center designed to make you feel as if you are in a village in Old Mexico.

Sedona was originally settled because of access to the year round water source provided by Oak Creek Canyon. What became a farming community serviced the nearby towns of Flagstaff to the north and miners in Jerome to the southwest. Heritage apple orchards are still maintained and in the autumn Sedona apples from local growers or pick-your-own at Slide Rock State Park are an anticipated annual tradition.
